

SSAM Membership Benefits

Legislative Protection – The association staff works diligently with legal and legislative counsels to monitor the progress of legislation that affects the self-storage industry and contributes input to assure that our viewpoints are represented, understood and protected. Members are kept informed about the progress of any legislation that could affect their business.

Member Services – The association staff can assist you in responding to technical questions, deal with local and state government units or act as a referral service to insurance, legal counsel or related services.

SSAM's web site - View the SSAM web site at www.selfstoragemichigan.org where we provide our members a place to list their company details and contact information including a link to your company's web site and e-mail address. This is an excellent source of exposure for your business.

Industry Insights - SSAM's newsletter provides timely industry updates ranging from legal and legislative issues, announcements of upcoming educational programs and money saving business ideas from the Association office in Okemos.

National Affiliation - SSAM is an affiliate of the national Self Storage Association (SSA). As a member of SSAM, you are entitled to several national benefits. This includes an annual subscription to the SSA Globe magazine, member discounts, benefit packages and online tools.

Government Relations - SSAM's role in government affairs does not end with its influence in the legislature. The association recognizes the importance of understanding and dealing with the myriad of agencies and departments that create and implement our laws. For that reason, the association functions as a liaison between you (as a business) and the bureaucracy which regulates our industries. SSAM represents your interests at the regional and national levels as members of the national Self Storage Association. SSAM represents your interests by contributing its input to federal agencies that regulate our industries on the regional and national levels.

SSAM Marketing and Public Relations Campaign – Keeps consumers, government officials, trade publications and media sources throughout the state informed by releasing a steady flow of information about the vital contributions the self-storage industry makes to Michigan's economy.

Michigan Self Storage Lien Law Annotated

On March 26, 2014, Governor Rick Snyder signed HB 4484 into law as Public Act 61 of 2014. This new Public Act amends the Michigan Self-Service Storage Facility Act and becomes effective June 26, 2014.

The Michigan Self Storage Lien Law Annotated has been updated to reflect all the legal changes. Purchase the book today to keep up to date on all the changes that affect your business! This book covers what you need to know regarding operating your facility. Your state association (SSAM) has partnered with our national association (SSA) to provide you with the necessary information and forms to be in compliance with Michigan Law.

The self-storage annotated lien laws are broken down by the state's statute by section and includes a Conclusion, Lien Sale Checklist and Notice of Lien Letter. Extensive comments of the state laws are provided by the Self-Storage Legal Network attorneys: D. Carlos Kaslow and Scott Zucker.

SSAM Members - $40.00

Non-Members - $60.00

Your purchase will also include a valuable Power Point presentation by Association Legal Counsel and Public Act 61 author William J. Perrone (Dykema, SSAM Legal Counsel). The presentation covers specifically the lien law changes and provides in depth explanation.
